

Bank of Ceylon is now a PCI under RERED Project

Bank of Ceylon, the largest commercial bank in Sri Lanka has joined the RERED Project as a Participating Credit Institution (PCI).

Bank of Ceylon is now able to finance the full spectrum of renewable energy development and demand side management initiatives eligible for financing under the RERED Project. Having a vast customer base spanning corporate, SMI and household levels, Bank of Ceylon will be able to spread the benefits of RERED Project among a very wide clientele.
